nyrej

Korth appointed adjunct professor at St. John's University School of Law

December 14, 2021 - Long Island

East Meadow, NY Donna-Marie Korth, a partner in the Coop/Condo and Litigation Practice Groups at Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP, has been appointed an adjunct professor at St. John's University School of Law. She will teach a course in coop, condo and HOA law at her alma mater, beginning in the spring.

In her practice, Korth handles the regulatory and compliance work for residential and commercial developments, and litigates all aspects of commercial and real estate law, including banking and commercial foreclosure, and handles lending workouts.

Certified to mediate a wide variety of civil disputes pre or post-litigation, she was appointed to serve on the Commercial Mediation Panel in Nassau County Supreme Court, Superstorm Sandy/Natural Disaster Mediation Panel in Eastern District of the United States District Court, Alternative Dispute Resolution Panel of the Nassau County Bar Association, and is a member of the ADR Advisory Council of the Nassau County Bar Association.

She served as dean of the Nassau Academy of Law, and continues to moderate and lecture Continuing Legal Education (CLE) seminars. She is also a former appointee to the Nassau County Bar Association Judiciary Committee, former co-chair of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee, and former chair/vice-chair of the Appellate Practice Committee of the Nassau County Bar Association.

Korth was named to the New York Metro Super Lawyers list consecutively from 2017 until 2021, and also to its Women's Edition for those years. She was recently selected by Hofstra University School of Law as a 2019 Outstanding Woman in Law. Long Island Pulse Magazine selected her as a Top Ten Legal Eagle in 2013. Long Island Business News included her as one of its "Ones to Watch" in 2019 and 2017; as a Who's Who in Women In Professional Services in 2016; as one of Long Island's Top 50 Professional Women in 2000 and 2004; and counted her among the 40 Under 40 Class in 2000, naming her "Class Salutatorian." She also received the Leadership Award from the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, and in 2006, Touro Law Center named her Outstanding Pro Bono Attorney. Korth serves on the Black and White Ball Committee for NYU Winthrop Hospital's Cancer Center for Kids and was the honoree in 2015. Along with her spouse, Korth serves on the Advisory Board of Chaminade High School Parents Club and is an active member of the University of Notre Dame Parents Club.

Korth earned her undergraduate degree in accounting from St. John's University, magna cum, laude, and then graduated from its School of Law with honors. She is admitted to practice in New York State and before the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and the United States Supreme Court.

In addition to the Nassau County Bar Association, she is a member of the New York State Bar Association and is a member of various sections including Cooperative and Condominiums, Commercial and Federal Litigation, and Alternative Dispute Resolution. She achieved the highest professional rating by Martindale Hubbell.