"This is our client's first U.S. foray outside of New York in more than four decades and we are excited about helping to shepherd the growth of the brand."

Aquino said, "Because of our experience in numerous markets nationwide, we are able to discern the best locations for our clients. Buccellati will be surrounded by the right retail in one Consolo's and Aquino's relationship with Buccellati began several years ago with the disposition and buy-out of its 40-year lease at 40 West 57th St. in New York City, followed by a game-changing relocation to a two-level space at 810 Madison Ave., in the heart of the "Jewel Mile" between 68th and 69th Sts. The Milan-based company has plans to open new stores in primary markets nationwide over the next couple years.

Ms. Consolo and Mr. Aquino exclusively represented the tenant in the transaction. Representing the landlord was Atlas Partners Commercial Brokerage.
