

AREAA of Metro New York hosts "Global is the New Local" event; Held on July 24th at the W Hotel

August 26, 2013 - New York City

The Asian Real Estate Association of America (AREAA) of Metro N.Y. hosted the "Global is the New Local" event on July 24th at The W Hotel. The event featured a keynote panel followed by roundtable discussions on topics including technology and social networking, financing options, professional networking, real estate tax and finance, and working with international buyers.

The "Global is the New Local" event showcased successful real estate leaders who have positioned themselves as the "go-to" resources for international real estate needs. Participants heard best practices, learned about technology tools and discussed how cultural factors are critical in the global real estate process.
