What do you do now and what are you planning for the future? Currently I'm learning from many talented people while working on exciting projects, and I'd like us to keep expanding our capabilities, especially with urban infill and rehab projects.

How do you unwind from a busy day in real estate? I enjoy cooking dinner with my lovely wife, and occasionally putting my kayak in the water someplace.

Favorite book or author: Anything by Salinger

Last song you downloaded? My taste evolves, so these days I only stream music. All Songs Considered on NPR is a great show.
