

WEDLI holds 12th annual legislative breakfast

May 19, 2008 - Long Island

The Women Economic Developers of Long Island (WEDLI) held their 12th annual legislative breakfast recently. The standing room only event featured Nassau and Suffolk County legislators who spoke about local issues such as waste management, the environment, transportation, power and housing.
