

Cornerstone Group relocates to new Brighton office

May 02, 2017 - Upstate New York

Brighton, NY The Cornerstone Group, Ltd. recently brokered the purchase of its new offices for its businesses, at 460 White Spruce Blvd. This multi-tenanted 6,200 s/f building had been previously owned by FGG Florida Partnership Ltd. Rochester Orthopedics had occupied the building until late 2016 and has relocated within the market.

Cornerstone moved its main offices to the building in March, following a renovation of a portion of the space. The real estate development firm engaged Atlas Contractors LLC for the seven-week renovation, which upgraded the space into a professional, modern office. There is ample parking and a full sized basement for legal office or storage purposes.

Its central location is ½ mile from Route 390 and the City of Rochester. It is also 1 mile from the brand-new Citygate Shopping plaza (anchored by Costco Wholesale) and 1.5 miles from the new Collegetown mixed-use development. The building is also close to several local colleges, including Monroe Community College (1/4 mile), University of Rochester and Strong Hospital (2 miles), and one of the largest private colleges in the country - Rochester Institute of Technology (3.5 miles).

Cornerstone continues to expand and currently employs more than 25 people, along with its property management arm Cornerstone Property Managers.
