

Thru the Lens: Avison Young New York holds fourth annual Global Day of Giving

November 21, 2017 - Front Section

New York, NY Avison Young New York held its fourth annual Global Day of Giving on Thursday, October 19 in all of the company's markets. A company-wide initiative, Avison Young's Global Day of Giving is part of the company's overall global citizenship strategy and it's one day throughout the year where employees across Avison Young's 80 offices dedicate the day to volunteer activities on behalf of local community organizations.

The entire Avison Young New York office participated and helped Project EATS, a program of the Active Citizen Project that operates working farms in the New York City area.
