

Herrick, Feinstein LLP hosts Young Mortgage Bankers Association event

February 20, 2018 - Front Section

Manhattan, NY On January 24th, Herrick, Feinstein LLP hosted the Young Mortgage Bankers Association's (YMBA's) first event of the new year, and the first under new president Joe Pizzutelli. YMBA's speakers gave attendees updates on a range of issues, including how tax reform will affect commercial real estate investment, advancements in real estate technology and the outlook for New York City air rights transactions in the new year.

Before and after the educational sessions, guests had an opportunity to catch up over drinks in Herrick's 2 Park Ave. event space.
