Title: Project Manager

Company Name: HOK

Years in your current field: 11

What professional organizations or associations are you a member of? PWC, ULI, AIA, USGBC

What was your most notable project in 2017?

The new North American Headquarters for LG Electronics in Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey. The building, designed by HOK and currently in construction, will offer 350,000 s/f of state-of-the-art office and amenity spaces while showcasing a variety of LG products and innovative technology. LG also aims to give back to the community with the integration of a Science Center into the program. HOK carefully placed the proposed building on a 27 acre site and designed it to respect its neighbors and the environment. It's currently targeting LEED Gold.
