

Greystone adds Cockley as deputy chief underwriter for FHA multifamily lending

April 02, 2019 - Financial Digest

New York, NY Greystone, a leading commercial real estate lending, investment, and advisory company, announced that Eben H. Cockley has joined as Deputy Chief Underwriter for the FHA lending platform, focusing on market rate multifamily and affordable housing.

“Our clients repeatedly tell us they keep choosing Greystone because we provide the best experience and best execution – and that comes down ensuring we have the right people in place to deliver that time and again,” said Nikhil Kanodia, head of production for Greystone’s FHA lending group. “Eben’s long tenure as a MAP underwriter is a tremendous asset for our team, and for our clients. We’re thrilled to welcome him to Greystone and to our growing team in Portland.”

Prior to joining Greystone, Cockley served as associate director for the FHA mortgage banking division at Red Mortgage Capital. He began his career as a research associate at FTN Midwest Securities. A Finance major, Cockley received his Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from the Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University.

Cockley reports to Kelley Klobetanz in Denver, CO, who leads a growing team for FHA multifamily underwriting at Greystone.

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540