

Friedman joins Sotheby's International Realty

December 17, 2007 - Front Section

Pauline Evans of the Evans team at Sotheby's International Realty said, "The newest member of her group is Wendy Friedman."

Friedman joins the group as a sales associate at Sotheby's International Realty headquarters at 38 E. 61st. St.

Friedman brings a background in marketing and sales. In 1997, she was selected to develop the Investment Centre at the United Nations Federal Credit Union. There she worked as a financial services consultant advising United Nation's staff members on personal investment decisions. She also contributed to the marketing activities that helped the start-up program become profitable in its first year.

Friedman coordinated special events for Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government. She handled full coordination of dinners and special gatherings for guests of the school, which regularly included international dignitaries.
