

Vantage Props. appoints Batista as key executive

August 11, 2010 - Owners Developers & Managers

Vantage Properties has appointed Raquel Batista to vice president for corporate responsibility and compliance, with oversight of the real estate company's commitment to providing residents with high-quality affordable housing.

Batista will work closely with residents, community leaders, elected officials and local organizations on a wide array issues - with a focus on ensuring residents receive a high level of service. Batista will also serve as Vantage's primary liaison with non-profit, civic and community groups.

Batista said, "I'm excited to serve as a bridge between the dedicated Vantage staff, the local communities and our residents as we work together to create cooperative and long-lasting partnerships."
