

IREM hosts 6th annual golf outing at Harbor Links Golf Course

August 11, 2010 - Owners Developers & Managers

The Greater New York Chapter of the Institute of Real Estate Management held their sixth annual golf outing at Harbor Links Golf Course. Even the storm that swept through the area, causing a 45 minute delay, couldn't put a damper on this great day of golf.

This year, IREM joined forces with the New York City chapter of Specialist, Industrial & Office Real Estate, giving everyone an opportunity to meet and network with new people. In addition, IREM Industry Partners; American Pipe & Tank; Bargold Storage; CoreLogic; Defender Security; Durnan Group; Hess; JAD Corporation; Pro Tech Plumbing & Heating; Pump & Motor Corp. and Rosenwach Tank all contributed to make the day a huge success.

The foursome from New York City based Cooper Square Realty were the day's big winners. They came in first place with their Low Net Score. Dawn Dickstein also came in first among the women for low individual score; Ben Kirchenbaum took first place in the men's low individual score.
