

IFMA NY summer golf event proved to be a success again

September 13, 2010 - Owners Developers & Managers

The IFMA NY Chapter Summer Golf Event proved to be a success again this year with the group arriving just as the rainstorm subsided, for a dry tea off and day. Leewood again hosted our group and provided a beautiful venue for the "real" players as well as the not so skillful participants. The day was topped off by great networking and socializing after the tournament with a wonderful cocktail hour and dinner. The Golf Event Committee out did themselves again this year, and is planning already for the 2011 event.
