

Meet the IFMA Member: Paola Nanetti

October 08, 2010 - Design / Build

Paola Nanetti is the business development manager for M Moser Associates. M Moser Associates is an international firm of interior architects that was established in 1981 to provide interior working environments for multi-national corporations and local clients. Nanetti works closely with the management team and the local staff to offer an integrated project delivery approach in the New York marketplace. Unlike a traditional design-bid-build process, an IPD approach is highly collaborative from start to finish and delivers a great value proposition to the client.
