

Joshpe of Joshpe of R.E. listed as exclusive agent of Yasgur's farm

September 07, 2007 - Upstate New York

Max Yasgur's homestead (including his residence, a 5,000 s/f farmhouse, a 7,000 s/f calving barn, and over 103 acres) is now for sale. Yasgur was the dairy farmer who became an icon when he allowed 40 acres of his farm to be used in August 1969 for the gathering now known as "The Woodstock Music and Arts Festival."

The property is being exclusively listed by Brett Joshpe of Joshpe Real Estate Co. Inc.
