

Meet the LICN Members: Jason Kohl and Sheldon Liebowitz

December 26, 2010 - Long Island

Jason Kohl founded Kohl Capital Associates in 2005. It is a commercial financing advisory firm focused on building wealth for clients by providing the commercial mortgage solutions and business financing to optimize long-term strategies. He and his firm are a critical partner for business owners and investors with exciting plans to grow. His skills lie in his ability and desire to maximize clients' ROI and assist with valuable cost reduction counseling and direct services like energy management and solar energy solutions. Kohl is a CCIM designee and a commercial lender for over 20 years. He and the firm consider themselves "THE Consultants for Capital."

Sheldon Liebowitz spent over 35 years in construction and real estate. He started as a manager of engineering at Bloomingdales before moving to senior VP for a NYC developer with 3 million s/f of high-end commercial office buildings. His next move was for a brief time with a residential management firm. Five years ago he launched Arldon Realty LLC. Arldon sells and leases retail, office or industrial space on Long Island. They concentrate on Bay Shore, Smithtown, Massapequa, St James, Patchogue and Holbrook.
