

Harvey Kolin earns CCIM designation

January 24, 2011 - Long Island

According to Corporate Commercial Realty, LLC (CCR), co-founder, partner and broker of record Harvey Kolin has earned the CCIM designation.

A full-time commercial real estate professional with over a quarter-century of commercial and industrial property management, Kolin's broad expertise spans lease negotiation, property acquisition, site selection and property development.

His reputation for delivering consistently extraordinary service throughout the transaction cycle derives from his advanced use of intelligence tools such as demographics, traffic flow, competitive market pricing, and investment analysis.

A staunch supporter of community and business organizations, Kolin's range of volunteer positions include President of the Metro Chapter of NY State Commercial Association of Realtors (NYSCAR); Treasurer of the Long Island Commercial Network (LICN); Co-Chair of the Hauppauge Industrial Association (HIA) Sales and Marketing Committee; Member of Commercial Industrial Brokers Society (CIBS); and Service / Business Organization Member of the Babylon Lions Club, Melville Chamber of Commerce, and American Business Association.

Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation is held in the disciplines of commercial and investment real estate by an elite corps of worldwide experts who serve as invaluable resources to commercial real estate owners, investors, and users. Only six percent of the estimated 150,000 U.S. commercial real estate practitioners hold the CCIM, one of the most coveted and respected designations in the real estate industry today.

CCIM designation is awarded upon successful completion of a graduate-level education curriculum and the presentation of a professional portfolio of qualifying industry experience. The curriculum addresses financial analysis, market analysis, user decision analysis and investment analysis, the cornerstones of commercial investment real estate.

Corporate Commercial Realty, LLC (CCR) has 30 years of industry experience encompassing commercial and investment real estate leasing, as well as sales and tenant representation.
