

Manditch of ENB recognized by L.I. Museum

January 24, 2011 - Long Island

Empire National Bank's chairman and CEO Douglas Manditch was recognized for his long-standing commitment to corporate philanthropy at the Long Island Museum's recent Holiday Celebration Gala.

"Having served on the museum's board of directors, I am well aware of the organization's contributions to our community. It was an honor to be recognized by a group that enriches the lives of so many of our fellow Long Islanders," said Manditch.

Long Island Museum's president and CEO Jackie Day said selecting Doug Manditch as this year's honoree was an obvious choice. "Doug has a long-standing commitment to corporate philanthropy and has been an ardent supporter of the museum for many years. He understands how vital it is for the business community to assist the not-for-profit sector."

Empire National Bank is built upon the foundation of time-honored values, personal service and emerging technologies. The bank has developed a wide array of innovative products and services specifically designed to meet the needs of small to mid-sized privately owned businesses, professional practices and not-for-profit organizations seeking a "neighborhood" banking experience. Headquartered in Islandia, New York, Empire National Bank is led by a management team of experienced bankers who are committed to supporting the Long Island community.
