

Thru the Lens: BOMA Westchester County

January 24, 2011 - Front Section

The Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA) of Westchester County has elected its new officers for the 2011 term. Mario Tarantino of Normandy Real Estate Partners was elected president for his second term. Tarantino and the other officers and directors were sworn in at BOMA Westchester's Annual Holiday Party and Inauguration of Officers held December 2 at Restaurant 42.

Other officers elected and sworn in for the 2011 term were: VP, Bill Muzzio of Reckson; secretary, Ian Ceppos of CBRE; and treasurer, Joe Caruso of Northeast Realty Advisors. The following directors were also elected: William Bassett of Cushman & Wakefield, Dean Bender of Thompson & Bender, Sean Brown of Peel Properties, Vinny Finnegan of Mack-Cali Realty Corp., John Lomurno of GlobeOp Financial Services LLC and Catherine Morrissey of BioMed Realty Trust. Charles Brown, Jr. of C.W. Brown, Inc. was elected Allied Representative.

BOMA Westchester is the county's leading professional organization dedicated to meeting the needs of building owners, property managers and allied professionals and tradespeople. BOMA Westchester is an affiliate of BOMA International --- the oldest and largest association of the office building industry, with over 100 federated associations in the United States and around the world. The 17,000-plus members of BOMA International own or manage more than 9 billion square feet of commercial properties in North America and abroad.
