How do you contribute to your company and / or the industry?

Commercial real estate is an interesting and exciting career. As brokers, we touch people in many different industries from the clients we work with to the professionals on our team. I am always conscious of taking a leadership role with my clients and team members. I try to do it in a thoughtful, ethical and balanced manner making sure all along the way that my clients best interests are being served while also acknowledging the contributions of everyone. We help our clients make very important decisions and we do not take it lightly.
