

Irwin Contracting to sponsor The Long Island Commercial Network

February 22, 2011 - Long Island

Irwin Contracting Inc. is proud to sponsor the Long Island Commercial Network organization in 2011. This group is the commercial division of the Long Island Board of Realtors (LIBOR) and consists of members who deal in whole or in part in investment and commercial property. One of the main objectives of LICN is to unite those in real estate with an emphasis in the branches of the Commercial real estate profession for the purpose of exerting a beneficial influence upon the profession and related interests.

"We support the organization and hope to provide a benefit to its members and their clients as a Building, as well as Investment and Development organization," said Krista Romanchek, marketing representative for Irwin Contracting. "We look forward to building relationships with LICN members at their meetings and networking events held throughout the year."

Irwin Contracting Inc. is a full service general contracting organization celebrating 25 years in business, with an expansive portfolio of commercial, municipal and residential projects throughout the New York metropolitan area. As a family operated business with experience in design, estimating, general construction and construction management, Irwin Contracting is positioned to serve a wide range of clients. ICI is located in Hauppauge and has earned a reputation for reliability, superior results, and exceptional value.
