

Meet the AIA Member - Soleo

April 11, 2011 - Design / Build

Steven Soleo, AIA, LEED-AP, has practiced architecture in NYC since 1995. He spent his early career in small offices, including Bogdanow Partners. In 2000 he joined Alexander Antonelli, a high-end residential design studio. Working directly with the principal, Soleo honed his design and management skills by leading the office in new construction. His interest in large-scale, urban projects led him to Beyer Blinder Belle in 2005. In 2010 he joined Abelow Sherman Architects to focus on his love of private residences.
