

Berman joins Ariel Properties Advisors as VP investment sales

April 11, 2011 - Spotlights

Jonathan Berman has joined Ariel Properties Advisors as a vice president for investment sales with responsibility for multifamily and development properties in Brooklyn.

Berman previously served six years at a major New York City commercial real estate firm where he sold more than 70 investment properties and won numerous awards for business development. He brings a wealth of experience to the position and will greatly strengthen our growing sales operation in Brooklyn.
