

Ruskin Moscou Faltischek named "Best Law Firm on Long Island" by Long Island Business News

January 04, 2008 - Long Island

Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, P.C., has been voted "Best Law Firm on Long Island" in an October 2007 reader's poll conducted by Long Island Business News. The firm was also named a finalist in the "best business formation law firm" and "best merger/acquisition law firm" categories.

Nearly 15,000 on-line votes were cast during the polling period. Voters were required to independently input their selections; no pull down menu was provided for pre-selection of individual company names.

Ruskin Moscou Faltischek has recently been lauded with additional recognition. Four Ruskin Moscou Faltischek attorneys were selected for inclusion in the 2007 Super Lawyers Metro Edition, which is an annual, exclusive listing of peer-nominated attorneys recognized for excellence in their respective areas of practice. The attorneys honored were Harold Berzow (bankruptcy); Michael Feigenbaum (estate planning and probate); Douglas Good (business litigation) and Harold Kestenbaum (franchise/dealership).

Ruskin Moscou Faltischek was chosen by Long Island Magazine in September 2007 for its 2007 MVP Award in Professional Services. The firm was selected over all other nominated professional services firms. The award recognizes Ruskin Moscou Faltischek's corporate growth, outstanding employee programs and exceptional corporate citizenship.
