

Manditch of Empire National Bank honored by Telecare

May 23, 2011 - Long Island

Empire National Bank's chairman and CEO Douglas Manditch was honored by Telecare at the organization's May 16th Golf Classic. The event was held simultaneously at Long Island's Piping Rock and Pine Hollow Country Clubs.

"It's an honor to be recognized by Telecare," said Manditch. "The station, founded by Monsignor Thomas Hartman and the Diocese of Rockville Centre more than 40 years ago, has always been committed to providing viewers the best in Catholic television." He added that Telecare has the reputation, in the tri-state area and elsewhere, as the foremost source for quality, faith-based programming.

"Doug Manditch is a wonderful man of faith and is dedicated to the community at large. He is a great honoree for us because of his deep commitment to people in need and to the community of Long Island and beyond. We are honored to have him as part of the Telecare family," said Telecare's president and CEO monsignor James Vlaun.

Empire National Bank is built upon the foundation of time-honored values, personal service and emerging technologies. The bank has developed a wide array of innovative products and services specifically designed to meet the needs of small to mid-sized privately owned businesses, professional practices and not-for-profit organizations seeking a "neighborhood" banking experience. Headquartered in Islandia, New York, Empire National Bank is led by a management team of experienced bankers who are committed to supporting the Long Island community. For more information, visit empirenb.com.

###

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540