

Retail Company Profiles: Schuckman Realty

August 08, 2011 - Shopping Centers

Schuckman Realty was formed over 30 years ago by its current president, Stanley Schuckman. Through the years, Schuckman has been a leading retail broker and developer in the New York Metro area. As a strategic planner of retail stores and shopping centers, Schuckman has been responsible for millions of square feet of leasing and development. And has been hired by numerous national retail chains to facilitate market penetration, not only in metropolitan New York but also in Atlanta, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Washington D.C. and Southeast Florida.

In commercial real estate, every market, location and deal has strengths and weaknesses. Viewing each deal as unique and analyzing its variables allows for the most effective market strategy to be formalized. This creative yet quality-driven approach has been the key to Schuckman Realty Inc.'s success with industry leaders. Proficiency in market analysis, site planning, hard work and extensive experience from both sides of the table are at the core of their success. Schuckman Realty Inc. has demonstrated a consistent ability to perform for developers and retailers. Schuckman is committed to remaining at the forefront of the retail real estate industry as it maintains its focus on delivering retail location opportunities that create value, not just for today, but for tomorrow.
