

U.S. Small Business Administration honors PW Grosser Consulting with certificate of excellence

August 22, 2011 - Long Island

P.W. Grosser Consulting has received a certificate of excellence for their nomination as the Region II Subcontractor of the Year Award from the U.S. Small Business Administration. Although, PW Grosser was not chosen as the regional winner, their nomination establishes them as one of the top small business subcontractors on Long Island and in the New York area.

President and COO of PWGC, Paul Grosser, PhD, PE said, "We were pleased to hear that our nomination came from the Brookhaven National Laboratory. We have worked closely and extensively with the Brookhaven National Laboratory for over 18 years. It is truly an honor that they felt P.W. Grosser Consulting was worthy of such a prestigious award."

The Office of Government and General Contracting's mission is to help enhance the effectiveness of small business programs by working with Government Contracting and Business Development program offices and others to develop policies, regulations, and statutory changes.

Additionally, according to P.W. Grosser Consulting, human resources director Deanna Lantieri-Bavlnka was sworn into the Three Village Board of Education as a trustee. Lantieri-Bavlnka was one of four candidates elected for the board in late June.

PWGC would like to congratulate Deanna Lantieri-Bavlnka on her hard work and accomplishments. PWGC is a multidisciplinary firm founded by Paul W.
