

ERG hires four new senior associates: Botway, Campbell, Karalesis and Freeman

October 07, 2011 - Front Section

ERG Property Advisors has hired four new senior associates, Clinton Botway, Shawn Campbell, Solon Karalesis, and Ryan Freeman.

After graduating from Lehigh University with a double major in Economics and International Relations, Botway joined TPI as an investment sales associate.

Campbell graduated from the University of Wisconsin - Madison with a bachelor's degree in International Studies. Prior to ERG, he was an analyst with Morgan Stanley.

Karalesis' career in real estate began in 1998 when he joined 222 Properties where he was a marketing strategist for 10 years. He earned a N.Y. real estate license from the N.Y.U. School of Continuing Education. He later also earned a Property Management Certificate from the NYREI.

Freeman graduated from Boston College's Wallace E. Carroll School of Management with a degree in Finance. Prior to ERG, he held a real estate license in California. He currently holds a real estate license in N.Y.

ERG Property Advisors is a full-service commercial brokerage company based in New York City. Its core activities are investment sales, retail leasing, and strategic consulting. While focused on the broader New York City area as a company, ERG also offers specific market knowledge at the submarket level. Beyond core New York City properties, ERG has access to a vast network of NNN properties throughout the United States. In addition to assisting property owners and prospective buyers, ERG provides banks, appraisers, attorneys, and accountants with information and skill sets that support them in their respective roles. Visit www.ergpa.com for recent deals and press coverage.

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540