

Catlett to address Orange County Partnership

November 21, 2011 - Front Section

Dr. Lowell Catlett is a regent's professor/dean and chief administrative officer at New Mexico State University's College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences. Dr. Catlett will inform and entertain the Hudson Valley business community at the 25th Orange County Partnership Annual Event on Tuesday, December 6.

The networking event will begin at 5 p.m. at Anthony's Pier 9. Tickets to the event are priced at $130 per person or $1,430 for a table of 12. For more information, please contact the Partnership at (845) 294-2323 or email: ginny@ocpartnership.org.

Dr. Catlett's knowledge of technologies and their implications on the way we live and work is addressed in his varied and upbeat presentations. Dr. Catlett presents on trends in healthcare, agriculture, the environment, education and, most recently on the state of the economy - and what's in store for businesses down the road.

Dr. Catlett received his doctorate in economics from Iowa State University and has twice received the Don C. Roush Award for Excellence in Teaching. He is also the recipient of the prestigious Burlington Foundation Faculty Achievement Award for Outstanding University Teaching.

Dr. Catlett is a consultant to many Fortune 500 companies and the U.S. Departments of Agriculture, Interior, Defense and Labor.

The Partnership's Annual Networking Event celebrates the year's corporate attractions and expansions and recognizes outstanding Orange County citizens and companies. This year's event is expected to break all attendance records as the Partnership will be celebrating its 25th anniversary.
