December 26, 2011 - Front Section

HFF has closed the sale of a 16-property self-storage portfolio in Connecticut, New York and Pennsylvania.

HFF and Louis Perfetto, Esq. of the law firm Cohen & Perfetto LLP, represented the seller, Storage Deluxe. CubeSmart purchased the entire portfolio for $357.31 million.

Under the terms of the contract, this was the first of two closings involving CubeSmart and Storage Deluxe. The second closing, with a purchase price of $202.7 million, will consist of six assets encumbered with $88 million of secured debt to be assumed by CubeSmart. This closing will take place immediately following the completion of the loan-assumption process and should occur in the first quarter of 2012. The second closing is subject to customary closing conditions, including lender consent with respect to the debt that will be assumed.

The HFF investment sales team representing Storage Deluxe was led by senior managing director Aaron Swerdlin.

"This transaction validates once again the opportunity to create value when well-designed, state-of-the-art buildings are developed in strategic locations and are coupled with top quality property management. We believe we have capitalized on a unique opportunity to monetize the value of the majority of our portfolio and this transaction will be a win-win for both CubeSmart and Storage Deluxe," said Nick Coslov, CEO of Storage Deluxe.

Steve Novenstein, president of Storage Deluxe Realty said, "This transaction will allow us to reinvest our capital into future deals. We are working hard to identify the best locations for sites and are intent upon re-investing our capital to continue to develop and expand our storage and real estate portfolio."
