January 18, 2008 - Spotlights

The Bridges NYC, a two-tower, seven-story mixed-use condominium development ushering in a new era of luxury, recently celebrated its official grand opening. The Bridges lead sales agents, Sid Whelan and Leo Muñoz with Halstead Property, guided party attendees through an exclusive tour of the building.

More than 300 brokers, prospective buyers, neighborhood business owners and civic leaders, including senator Bill Perkins, were in attendance.

The Bridges has officially opened its sales office at 2283 Third Ave. on the corner of 124th St., with exclusive sales brokerage provided by Halstead Property Development Marketing, LLC.
