

Bethpage Federal Credit Union celebrates 26th branch opening

April 23, 2012 - Long Island

Bethpage Federal Credit Union celebrated the grand opening of its newest branch on Long Island located at 555 Montauk Highway. Suffolk County legislator Wayne Horsley, Babylon town councilman Tony Martinez and other invited guests joined Bethpage president and CEO Kirk Kordeleski at the opening of the credit union's 26th Long Island branch location, its 12th in Suffolk County.

"Bethpage is very proud to be a part of the diverse West Babylon community," said Kordeleski. "We look forward to forging strong relationships with local town residents, officials and area businesses, including West Babylon's many small businesses, to help strengthen and support the growing community in every way we can."

A bilingual branch, the new Bethpage West Babylon branch employs six full-time employees, three of whom are bilingual, in a 3,577 s/f location. Maria Zahn is the new West Babylon branch manager. West Babylon is Bethpage's 14th bilingual branch.
