

Thru the Lens: Albanese Org. and The Visionaire celebrate Earth Day

May 21, 2012 - Front Section

In honor of Earth Day, The Visionaire (one of the nation's greenest high-rise condominium) held its annual celebration. More than 200 people came to honor Earth Day and learned more about healthy, sustainable living from leaders in Lower Manhattan and in the building.

Kids were engaged too, and planted their own basil sprouts, made musical instruments with recycled materials, got their faces painted, and more.
