

Raskob of Kaufman Org. handles two leases - 6,297 s/f

June 25, 2012 - Front Section

The Kaufman Org. has brokered two leases totaling 6,297 s/f at the Nelson Tower, located at 450 Seventh Ave. Barbara Raskob in-house represented Kaufman in both deals.

"The diversity of the tenants shows how the building fits the needs of businesses across various industries," said Raskob. "The location is convenient for employees and its clients because it is steps away from major transportation hubs."

* Alcatel-Lucent USA, Inc. signed a five-year lease for 5,436 s/f. Headquartered in Paris, the N.Y. office will be reconfigured per the tenant's architect's plan with offices, reception area, conference room and pantry. Gary Ceder of UGL Services Equis Operations Co. represented the tenant.

* Advance Relocation & Storage signed a five-year expansion lease for 861 s/f. Advance Relocation has been a tenant at The Nelson Tower since 2002 and is moving into a larger space within the building. The space will be re-painted, re-carpeted and one wall will be demolished to create an open floor plan.

450 Seventh Ave., located in the heart of the Fashion District, features 24-hour, 7 day-a-week on-site security and management. Tenants include the Citibank Real Estate and the Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Coal Fire, Reliant Security, Stuart Dean Inc. 450 Seventh Ave. is steps away from Herald Square and Penn Station.

The Kaufman Organization, with 100 years experience and 5.4 million square feet of owned or managed space, has long been considered one of the most prominent and well-respected real estate companies in the New York metropolitan area. The company offers a fully integrated spectrum of leasing and management services to diverse owners and tenants and is continually looking to build its portfolio through property acquisitions.
