

Inscape opens new 6,500 s/f showroom in New York City; Space designed by Studios Architecture

July 16, 2012 - Design / Build

Inscape has opened its new 6,500 s/f showroom that showcases the company's smart applications for workspaces. The showroom is located at 414 West 14th St., 6th floor.

Designed by Studios Architecture, an international design practice focused on enhancing the human experience, the space is warm and inviting while showcasing Inscape's creative solutions for the workspace. The showroom is located in the Meatpacking District.

The opening of the showroom in New York City is another milestone in establishing Inscape as a key provider of workspace solutions in this large business hub. Over the past year, Inscape has built a strong team of sales professionals to support growth in this market.

"We are excited to have a showroom in New York City that showcases our smart workspace applications," said Jeff Chaitman, VP sales - eastern region. "Our sales team will be focusing on supporting the design community and expanding new business development opportunities in New York City."

The showroom includes a large open area to hold receptions and industry events. Recent events featured a discussion with Scot Horst, SVP of U.S. Green Building Council for LEED + Global Strategic Innovation and a meeting of the Latino American Commercial Real Estate Association.
