

Centerline hires Geltzeiler

July 30, 2012 - Financial Digest

According to Centerline Capital Group, it has hired Mara Geltzeiler for its Mortgage Banking Group. Geltzeiler was hired as a senior vice president reporting to William Hyman, head of the Mortgage Banking Group. Geltzeiler will focus on growing Centerline's production for Freddie Mac's conventional business.

Prior to joining Centerline, Geltzeiler worked for Freddie Mac in their Northeast Region.

At Freddie Mac, she successfully underwrote and closed more than 100 transactions totaling $2.6 billion. William Hyman noted, "We are delighted to welcome Mara to Centerline. Her experience and intimate knowledge of Freddie Mac will be an invaluable resource to us, and to our clients." In 2011 Centerline completed more than $1.3 billion in mortgage banking multifamily transactions, and plans to grow the platform by more than 20% in 2012.

Ms. Geltzeiler held several positions at Prudential Financial, Inc. including originations, private equity, and affordable housing before she joined Freddie Mac in 2008. A graduate of George Washington University's School of Business, Ms. Geltzeiler has a BA in finance and graduated cum laude. In 2010 she co-founded United Women in Business, a non-profit foundation helping to educate young professional women and mentor female high school and college level students.
