

Mongioi of Forchelli appointed Nassau County Bar Association's vice chair of the real property committee

August 13, 2012 - Long Island

Mary Mongioi, real estate and tax, trusts and estates attorney at Forchelli, Curto, Deegan, Schwartz, Mineo & Terrana, LLP, has been appointed Nassau County Bar Association's vice chair of the real property committee.

Mongioi concentrates her practice in the tax, trusts and estates department, where she offers clients years of experience in the handling of litigated estate matters as well as in civil litigation, appellate practice and real estate.

In addition to estate matters, Mongioi has experience handling the foreclosure of mortgages and other liens on both residential and commercial real property.

She has represented several financial institutions in connection with loan transactions and drafting complex commercial loan documents for the restructure of non-performing loans, with emphasis on co-operative loans.
