

Moritt Hock & Hamroff names Wirth partner

September 10, 2012 - Long Island

Gary Wirth, Esq. has joined Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP as a partner where he will chair the firm's Construction & Surety Practice Group.

"My partners and I are delighted to welcome Gary Wirth to the firm. Gary's solid reputation and 30 plus years of experience in the construction and surety law sectors is an incredible asset to the firm. We look forward to working with Gary as we continue to expand our practice." said Marc Hamroff.

Wirth concentrates his practice in all facets of complex construction and surety law matters.

The scope of his practice is diversified, and includes surety work, construction claims, transactional work, bankruptcy, and general commercial and corporate law. He represents subcontractors, construction managers, sureties, material suppliers, owners and general contractors in construction litigation cases, workouts, and transactional matters. He also litigates matters at trial and appellate levels in courts throughout the New York region and other parts of the country. He earned his Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law and is admitted to practice in New York. In addition to his practice, Mr. Wirth has served, in an advisory capacity, on the Board of Directors of the Subcontractors Trade Association (STA) and is a member of the New York Surety Association, the Long Island Contractors Association (LICA) and the Long Island Metro Business Action (LIMBA).

Moritt Hock & Hamroff LLP with offices on Long Island and Manhattan provides a wide range of legal services to businesses, corporations and individuals nationwide.
