

POM names Mitkowski as project manager to oversee installations

September 21, 2007 - Front Section

Peace of Mind Technologies, LLC (POM), has hired Michael Mitkowski, as project manager to oversee and coordinate systems installations provided by a staff of 18 service professionals. In his new capacity, he will schedule installations at clients' premises and facilities and inspect executed systems to ensure quality control.

"Mitkowski brings a great deal of expertise to this position," said Jon Ecker, president and CEO of POM. "His background includes working with integrated security solutions similar to ours, as well as project and construction management."
