

Professional Profile: Megan BovÃ©© 2012

November 12, 2012 - Long Island

Name: Megan BovÃ©©, LEED AP BD+C

Title: LEED Project Manager

Company: Racanelli Construction Co., Inc.

Location: Melville, NY

Birthplace: Massapequa, NY

College: James Madison University, BFA

First job outside of real estate: Gymnastics instructor and counselor

First job in real estate or allied field: Junior designer at Kondylis Design.

What do you do now and what are you planning for the future? LEED project manager at Racanelli Construction and also the chairwoman of the USGBC-Long Island chapters Emerging Professional Committee.

Hobbies: Fitness/working out, volunteering, dancing, biking, interior design

Favorite book: "To Kill A Mockingbird" by Harper Lee

Favorite movie: "Field of Dreams"

Keys to success: I try to do everything with my head as well as my heart. I don't back down from challenges, but also am never afraid to ask for help or work as a team with people.

Person(s) you most admire (outside of family): Mother Teresa - I am amazed at how much just one person could give of herself to others. Johnny Depp- He is so talented in his craft.

If you had to choose another vocation, what would it be? A teacher