What do you do now and what are you planning for the future? One Communications, with corporate offices in Rochester, N.Y. and Waltham, Mass., is one of the largest privately-held competitive local exchange carriers in the U.S. and a powerful telecommunications resource for business. Our customer-focused approach offers an attractive alternative to the big phone companies, with a superior level of service, support and personal attention they just don't deliver. One Communications serves more than 160,000 small-to-mid sized businesses in 16 states throughout the northeast, mid-Atlantic and upper midwest regions.
