

Shambaugh & Son awarded contract with Cayuga Milk Ingredients

March 11, 2013 - Upstate New York

EMCOR Group, Inc.'s subsidiary Shambaugh & Son has been awarded a contract by Cayuga Milk Ingredients to act as the design/build contractor for its new manufacturing facility.

Shambaugh & Son will be responsible for the design and construction of this 110,000 s/f evaporator and dryer, vertically integrated manufacturing facility for Cayuga Milk as well as for installation of its process equipment and utilities. Shambaugh's scope of work includes all construction management, as well as management and performance of all architectural, civil, structural, process, mechanical, electrical, and plumbing disciplines.

"We're delighted we were selected to provide the wide range of services required for this complex new facility for Cayuga," said Mark Shambaugh, president and CEO, Shambaugh & Son. "The diverse experience of Shambaugh's seasoned personnel enables us to provide the expertise and breadth of skills required to meet the demanding specifications of this project."
