

Kaled Management names Ahn director of sales and leasing

April 08, 2013 - Long Island

Kaled Management Corp., owners and managers of nearly 6,500 rental apartments, co-ops and condos throughout New York City and Long Island, has named Hak Bin Ahn as director of sales & leasing to head up their recently formed residential sales brokerage division. Jordan Platt, vice president of operations at Kaled Management, made the announcement.

Ahn, a longtime resident of Forest Hills, NY, began his real estate career with EXIT Realty, where he was consistently ranked among their top producers. In 2010 he was honored as a multi-million dollar producer at EXIT's national and regional conference. He has also received the prestigious Award of Excellence from Realtors.com and is a certified buyer's representative.
