What do you consider to be the most successful way to increase referrals?

Acting with integrity, professionalism, and sincerity with those I am referred to makes me a valuable tool to those that refer their clients, friends, family or business associates to me.

I am a positive reflection of them and appreciate the trust they show in me and perform so as to continue to earn it.

"It is better to give than to receive is a mantra I try to live with." Helping others without the expectation of what I can get back feels wonderful and somehow it comes back in some way. However, I am not looking for the return or thinking about it.
