

LICN and LIBOR hold "getting to know one another" event

June 10, 2013 - Long Island

LICN and several of the LIBOR groups of Queens and Nassau County gathered for an evening of "getting to know one another." There were many Realtors who already do business together, there was the usual sharing of issues in the real estate industry as well as some of the tricks that have been learned. A discussion was had about whether it is best for a Realtor to be associated with a name organization or a smaller local organization. Pros and cons were exchanged.

It was an excellent opportunity to develop personal relationships which will prove useful in the future. The venue was beautiful and the weather cooperated.
