

IREM president Hayden swears in newest ARM, Dubro

March 10, 2008 - Owners Developers & Managers

At a recent luncheon, IREM chapter president James Hayden had the honor of swearing in IREM's newest Accredited Residential Manager, Henry Dubro.

The Accredited Residential Manager certification (ARM) is the most widely esteemed credential for residential real estate managers. To potential employers and clients, the ARM credential symbolizes broad-based expertise in the entire spectrum of residential real estate management, from day-to-day maintenance to financial planning.
