

Levine of Charter arranges 3,000 s/f lease for SoulCycle

September 09, 2013 - Long Island

Charter Realty & Development has arranged its third transaction on behalf of SoulCycle for a 3,000 s/f space at the Woodbury Common Shopping Center. Peter Levine of Charter represented SoulCycle in direct dealings with Neal Kaplan of Kabro Associates.

Woodbury Common is an 85,000 s/f center which is in the process of undergoing a complete transformation. The center will add over 30,000 s/f of new space, additional parking and new facades and amenities. In addition to SoulCycle, additional new tenants slated to open are a 20,000 s/f Fresh Market, as well as numerous other upscale fashion retailers and better quality restaurants.

SoulCycle's full-body workout has revolutionized indoor cycling and taken the world of fitness by storm. Combining inspirational coaching and high-energy music, SoulCycle offers an engaging workout that benefits both the mind and the body. Each SoulCycle ride delivers an intense full-body workout with a fun and energizing atmosphere. Not only do riders burn calories and get their hearts pumping, but using the SoulCycle Method, riders also work their core and use hand weights to tone their upper bodies. Beyond providing an intense cardio workout, SoulCycle also incorporates a mental component of inspirational coaching.

Charter currently owns or leases over 12 million s/f of shopping centers throughout the northeast.
