

Giscombe Realty Group hosts special party

March 25, 2008 - Spotlights

Giscombe Realty Group recently held a party for clients and friends to help celebrate the new year and the firm's renaming at a classic Harlem venue - The Flash Inn Restaurant, a hidden gem on Macombs Place that sits atop the historic Harlem Heights' Sugar Hill.

Eugene Giscombe, president and founder of Giscombe Realty Group (formerly Giscombe Henderson), transported his guests back in time to one of New York City's iconic restaurants that offers a great view overlooking Yankee Stadium.

Giscombe heads one of Harlem's longstanding real estate brokerage and commercial development companies and is also chairman of the 125th St. Business Improvement District.
