

Burrows of WSP holds Q&A at screening of Time Scanners at CUNY Graduate Center

July 14, 2014 - Front Section

WSP's Steve Burrows answers questions about his discoveries and revelations in the PBS series "Time Scanners," at an advance screening of the premiere episode held recently at CUNY Graduate Center. The series follows Steve and a team of laser scanners as they apply state-of-the-art laser technology to solve mysteries of how ancient engineering marvels, such as the pyramids of Egypt, were achieved. Steve is executive vice president and USA director of buildings for WSP. Some 150 guests attended the screening and a reception. Photo credit: Nicola Evans/WSP
